Stay in an historical palazzo dating to the 1800s

Few hotels in Rome can boast the magnificent location of the Hotel Savoy. Housed in an aristocratic palazzo dating to the late 1800s, its guests are welcomed into a discrete and elegant environment which beautifully blends comfort with the class of a 4-star superior hotel.

The hotel is ideal for those wishing to stay in the centre of Rome surrounded by the atmosphere of the dolce vita of Via Veneto. An historic hotel, it was named after Queen Margaret of Savoy who, in the early 1900s, chose it for her Roman sojourns. Documents and vintage photographs also demonstrate that the Savoy was the hotel of the historic "March on Rome."

Today, the 4-star Savoy is the preferred destination of those seeking exclusivity, tranquility and, above all, a central location. In fact, the hotel is in an ideal location just steps from the great shopping streets with famous name boutiques, as well as Villa Borghese.
